GAS FOR THE HALL & THE HAMLET:

FOR THE PARLOR & WORKSHOP; FOR THE SEA & THE SHORE; FOR THE WOODS & PLAINS;

GAS FOR ALL!

CONVERTING THE AIR WE BREATHE INTO LIGHT! The cheapest and most hrilliand of all gas lights, competing directly with coal or street gas:

1st. In the heauty of the fixtures;
2d. In the Cleanliness of the approximates.
3d. In its safety and convenience.
And surpassing coal or street gas in its brilliancy and coon my—costing less than one half the price of coal gas in Louisville or Cincinnati—attaiding 1,000 cubic leet of excellent gas for $5.00.

It has long been desired that the Inxury of Coal or Street Gas, now in use only in cities, could be produced in a partable and simple form. The Vesper Gas or Air Light, patented by D. H. Carpenter, August 4, 1857, and May 25, 1858, is confidently offered to fae public as more than the real ration of that desire.

We could give the testicon of a hast of persons who have the light in use, but content ourselves by stating that the enineut chamists, Professors James J. MAPES, CHAMLES A'STILLET, and A. K. ELTDN. of New York, after a thorough examination of its merits, promounced it the best and cheapest light now in use.

ANALYSIS PORTER'S ORIENTAL LIFE LINIMENT,

Professor of Chemistry in the Kentucky School of Medicine, December, 1858. To R. D. Porter: Sir—The ingredients which enter into composition of the Preparation known as "Porter's Oriented Life Lininest," which was left with me for gualitative chemical analysis, were found on examination to contain the to lowing ingredients:

Eupiene, Capromar, Paraffine, Oil from Resin, Napthu, Carbonate of Potassa,

Pireanar, Pitnest, Carbonate of Potassa,
All of the above ingredients, with the exception of Carbonate of Potassa, are eminently antiseptic. As the composition of the above preparation is no longer a secret, I have no hesitancy in stating that it is a safe and efficacious external remely for the disease in which it is recommended.

Respectfully,

Ilundreds of physicians use and prescribe Porter's Oriental Life Liniment, believing it to be the best remedy for that class of diseases in which it is recononwended. They know its composition and preseribe it with us much certainty, as to its effects, as they do any other remedy.

The following are a few of the many eminent and influential physicians who have written letters to the proprietor speaking in the highest terms of tho medical properties of the Orinetal Life Liniment:

Dr. W. D. Reid, of Jefferson county, Ky.; Dr. Moses Appelgate, Crothersville, Ind.; Dr. Brure, of

Hon. Beriah Magoffin

The Eighth of January Convention, in nominating the Hon. Beriah Magothin for Governor gave to the Democracy of Kennacky an unexcep-tionable candidate. The delegates who opposed Magollin in the convention were not against him n any other grounds than those of personal preferences for others. Boyd, and Talbott, and Hise, and McCreery, and Bradley had their friends in the convention, but not one of those friends were politically opposed to Magoffin. They were all glad to see him nominated when

The convention which has put forward Magof-fin was the largest ever held in Kentucky. The city of Frankfort never held so many delegates at one time. The public houses were all overat one time. The public houses were all over-flowed, and the streets a tide of men. Many had not where to lay their head for steep, and found little to eat while awake. If Frankfort don't grow larger and build more bouses of cutert in-ment by the time of the holding of the next convention, another place will have to be sought to gue accommodate the hosts of the Democracy

As said before, the nomination of Magoffin ment continued by Hord for appellants, will give universal satisfaction. He is a gentleman and a sellotar. Fluent of speech, affable uf manner, and popular of address, he will make a good impression wherever he goes. He made himself ropular in the race of 1855, while canvassing the State for Lientenant Governor, and

He was sent to Center College at an early age, rehearing filed and graduated at eighteen. While in college he was one of the only three Democrats there. Ex-traordinary efforts were made to convert him to another bith than the Democratic, but without avail. He was b rn a Democrat, he earried his Democracy through school and through college, and he expects to die a Democrat—not, however, until he has been Givernor of Kentucky, and done many good things for his party beyond the office of Chief Executive of the State.

The political career of Mr. Mage lin began in 1840, when he was but a youth. He mounted the stump, and did what he could to quell the disturbances that had been created in the land by paign, and were considered first class States Rights efforts. In 1841, when Gen. Butler was a candidate for Governor, Wr. M. was appointed elector for the Fifth District, and although it was overwhelmingly Wlng at the time, after one of the fiercest emtests ever wage I in Kentucky, 'except that of 1555, he carried the district by nearly o'es; and if the other districts had done a well, the gallant old General would have been elected by a handsome in jurity. In 1848 he was appointed assistant elector for the State at large, and canvossed rearly half of the State. In 1850 cent.—Daily Ent recise

Of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing. he was elected without opposition to the Senate of Kentucky, the duties of which station he discharged, as a limitted by all parties, with distinguished ability. In 1855 he was the nominee of the Democratic party for Lieutenant Governor and as such curvassed the entire State—only failing of an election in that bitter contest by 3,674 votes, the majority against Magollin being nmen less than against any other candidate on the ticket. He was a delegate for the State at large to the Cincinnati Convention, in 1856, and was again elector for his own district, which gave an overwhelming amjority for the Democratic

His moral character is without stain, his political without a blemsh, and, take turn all in all, he is the man for the time and place to which the proud Democracy have destined him. He will carry the State by at least twenty-thousand, and there is no telling what majority he will get. The Democracy must make up a complimentary vote for him as a reward for his defeat in 1855; but there is no necessity for giving him more than forty thousand m nority. The Democratic Corvention which assembled at Frankfort on the 8th of January, was the largest body of the kind ever convened in the State. Casey, Harlan, Knox, Perry, and Whitley counties were the only ones unrepresented. The large hall of the House of Representatives, in which the Convention assembled, was, during its session, literally crammed to overflowing, whilst the streets of the "city under the hill" were swarming with layal specimens of unterrited Democracy. The freemen of Kentucky had come from t'e blue grass regions and the mountains to spend one day at the Capital, and lend their voice and their patriotism in behalf of the party with whose success their own and their State's interest and prosperity are so closely identified. The 5th of January was a fitting day for the assembly of the Democracy in State Convention. vana, intelligence of a curious nature comes to it. to us, which, when taken in conjunction as a The European Outery against the whole, reveals the existence of some startling political schemes in regard to this continent.

In Paris we learn that a project for the establishment of mixed monarchies in Porto Rico, Cuba, and Mexico, is entertained, and that the Central American question is looked to the Contral Contr that the Central American question is looked we s'all have from Durope in a few days, from that the Central American question is looked upon as being precisely the same as the Turkish question four years since, when the Western Powers of Europe combined to put down Russia. From Madrid we are informed that Gen. Coneha is willing to give in his resignation as Captain General of Cuba, but that he does not wish to leave this continent until chy of the Spanish American republics is French Consul, Reyband, to induce President Santama to give up Dominica to Sonlouque.

Santama to give up Dominica to Sonlouque.

Montemplino is to give up his claims to the "You're a prominent man, have a statesman's Spanish crown for a mixed monarchy in Cuba, reputation, a fine mtellect, a broad knowledge of Hayti, and Porto Rico. Christine's old idea men and things in this country and Europe, and

The policy which Mr. Ruchaugh, would, edoct ror in that too. Onsely is sent to Washington and to Nicaragna to humbug us for a while, until time can be gained to arrange the ground and the preliminaries. Our commercial result of Cuba should have the same authority to tween France and England. We have neglected to develop a policy in our American relations such as becomes us. We have been inactive, when we should have written the destiny of the island key to all our Southern shore upon the record of the traditional policy of our country. We have been weak in listening to the syren songs of French ambassadors and British intriguers. The London organs of British Ministers and ex-Ministers taunt us with the assertion that "the Monroe doctrine is a mere byword," and that since its announcement, in 1823, the United States has never "succeeded in a single instance in forcing it against the diplomacy or the protests of any tween France and England. We have neg- 16 it against the diplomacy or the protests of any that effect. Mr. Buchanan has asked for the European nation." These are the results means to make prehiminary payments, and he which flow from our boyish course in legisla- would not have done this had be not had good which flow from our boyash course in legislation and government. Not only in our foreign relations, but in our domestic policy, our system of linance, and everything that relates to the practical art of government, matters are conflucted on the from hand to mouth system.

There seems to be not a statesman worthy of the name among our public men. Our ships

Tesident should not have done that had he not find good reason to suppose that something cun be done with the Court of Spain. Congress should, therefore, by all means, give him the opportunity to uvail amself of the lavorable conjunctures he may see for earrying out this high step in our national advance; and the luder the European outcry against it, the more is the reason why the President should be armed with the money. If are searched and our flag insulted on the Spain is so reselved and so virtuous, what danger ocean, and Congress experiences a three days? does she incur by the simple act of our Congress? excitement. Revulsions come, and the treasexcitement. Revulsions come, and the treas-try borrows for twenty-four hours, and then shins it, like a Wall street broker, to meet its engagements. A sliding scale tariff is adopted, and with commercial expression the revenue runs up. Then we cut down the tariff, and is exhibited. The Monroe doctrine, popular as it is with the people, has become a dead asserting it; but the time for such a step has long York that not only is the American continent not our doing this. Not that the republic will be Marshal Radetzky, of the Austrain across, at overthrown to-day or to-morrow; but with Wijer General Persifer F. Smith, U. S. Santana to give up Dominica to Sonlouque.

These separate and unconnected revelations show that there is a deep scheme at work in the European Cabinets for interference in American politics. The Clarenden announcement of the policy of the Anglo-French alliance is to be carried out. A barrier is to be creeted to American extension southward. This has always been a lavorite idea of Luis Napoleon. A balance of power in accordance with the Napoleonic ideas of the division of the world is to be created. Perhaps the Count Montemplino is to give up his claims to the

A S SIIOWN by the statements of the Board of Beath of New York, cause: the death of 70 persons out of 60 deaths, in one week, and 131 deaths by consumption induced by Dyspepsy. As it is a well attested fact that fly speps us the origin of the sufferings of a large portion of those who die of consumption, it becomes the duty of every one to use such precautions against, and remedy for Dyspepsy, as science and experience have placed before them, and which have proved to be efficacious; of this character is "Dr. Williams' Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir," in estroboration of which, read the following testimonias:

Cornwall's Half-way Hot Se, Bristol Turnpike.

Testimony of Mr. Abner Elmes, Mirket street, above Sixth, corroborntive of the efficiency of Williams' Anti-Dyspepie Elixir:

Dr. James Williams—Dear Sir: It gives me great pleasure to know that you are again preparing your medicine for the cure of Dyspeps, for many of my acquaintances have repeatedly asked me where it could be procured, knowing that I had been cured by it. As I think that a public asknowle lament of the great benefit I have received from the use of your medicine is not only due toyou, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For several years I suffered from Dyspeps, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was e inpelled to restrict myself to the most simple food, and even that I could not digest; I felt a loss of strength, dishelimation to exercise, and as you have it in your advertis-ment) in general feeling of depression and indescribable weariness. In the year 1838, hearing from others hay recommendation of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most happy effect; under its influence, languor and weariness gradually passed nawn, and my appetite returned, which I could gratify with impunity. Ten years live now elapsed, and my confidence in the curative powers of our medicine has of course increased, for it completely cured me when I failed to ohtain relief from any other source.

Very respectfully yours.
